This book is the transcript of a private conference given to more than 400 people.

Today I will reveal to you how to access the beginning of the Anyvers. We stand at the beginning of a new world that we are creating together. This new world will be able to save many human lives, contrary to what others want to do.

I am Jean-Luc Noe, I am a bioenergeticist, I work in collaboration with people who are leaders in their field, including Professor Attila Krasznahorkay who has been nominated for the Nobel Prize in Physics 2020, he is a researcher in quantum physics. He is the discoverer of the particle called "Protophobe Boson X17", which I prefer to call the Krasznahorkay particle. He is the director of the Hungarian Nuclear Research Institute. I also work with Professor Kaili Jiang, a Chinese professor who is a researcher at the University of Tsinghua University in China and head of the Department of Physics in Beijing. He works especially on all the physical electromagnetic forces. And then, Dr. Yoichi Ochiai, director of the Department of Digital Nature Research and Development at the University of Tsukuba, he is a specialist in ultrasonic frequencies, as well as a specialist in digital nature. He works on everything that is frequency and vibration, he is a leader in his field. He is the Geo Trouvetout of the band, he is less than 35 years old.

I am also an author, trainer, coach and guide. With my team, we have done over 7,000 individual coaching sessions in the last two years. I am the creator of the A.I.M.E.® Academy, International Academy of Metamorphosis of Being. With me, you are no longer in personal development. I consider that personal development serves you to better manage in the matrix.

We are into metamorphosis because I teach you to tear yourself away, to extricate yourself from this matrix that keeps you in slavery. All my teachings are made as such. I teach you to be true resisters, I give you the methods, the strategies and the tools to be able to get through all the chaos and all the stagnation that you are experiencing right now. Over 80,000 people receive my advice via email. As an author, I published my first book called "The 9 Phases of Applied Spirituality" and it was a bestseller the very day it came out. It was followed by "Subversive Gladiator". For those of you who don't know me, I recommend this one, it's my biography. You can find it for less than 10€ on Amazon. It was followed by "Illusions and Disillusions of Personal Development",

"Take Back the Power over your Metabolism". The latter is another bestseller, it allows you to switch the interior of your physical body from an acidic to an alkaline environment, with very specific recipes, in the space of fourteen days. And then the last one is called "Bioenergetic Body Mastery", which is also a bestseller. In this book, I talk about frequencies, vibrations and the mechanics behind these frequencies and vibrations.

The most important thing with all the turmoil right now is to stay in the highest vibrations. This requires working on yourself, training, doing real high level athlete training, which I teach you to do in all of my programs and training. We will talk about what is happening, what is happening. You will see that chance never exists, there is always a cause, there is always a reason for something that is happening on this planet, in the universe. The cause-and-effect relationship exists everywhere. The thing is to know the real cause every time, not the one they put in front of you, all the media mush, thrown out by all the mainstream media. It's pure manipulation and permanent propaganda, it has nothing to do with reality or the real cause. And if you don't know the real cause, how do you deal with the effect.

I'll just give a quick summary of the last two workshops. They shifted the focus from Covid-19, a focus that lasted for over two years, to Ukraine. You have to know that the challenge is global. What is happening in Ukraine? I will just recap very quickly. Ukraine is a country I know well, I lived there for four years. At the time, it was in Crimea, in Sevastopol, which has been under the Russian Empire since 2014. In Crimea, everyone was completely pro-Russian. When Putin annexed Crimea in 2014, they all felt like they were coming home. Everything they throw at you in the West has nothing to do with reality. One thing you have to understand is that the people I call the Fantastic Four, the puppeteers who have been running the world for hundreds of years, if not millennia, who pass down the road from father to son, they are having a good time. They play a game, like a board game I played as a teenager called Risk. It's a life-size game, which they are playing in the real world. Putin, who they make out to be the big bad guy, is part of the gang.

These people are constantly conditioning all the world's leaders, all the people who will have responsibilities in this world, whether they are directors of very high-level companies, multinationals, or governors. They format and condition them. You have all heard of the World Economic Forum, headed by Klaus

Schwab, which was created in 1971 by Klaus Schwab but financed by the Rockefeller Foundation.

Putin was part of the 1992 session with Angela Merkel. He has been formatted and conditioned in exactly the same way as they have, with one difference: he is Russian. They make him play a role, that of going to be the bad guy and attacking Ukraine. Who benefits from the crime and why did they make him attack Ukraine? The reason is very simple, in Europe, in the United States and in the whole West, a hyper inflation of 25% on this year 2022. You will see that at the end of the year, you will have taken 25% inflation.

Then it doesn't stop there because we are witnessing the biggest holdup in the history of humanity, we are witnessing the biggest transfer of wealth that has ever taken place since humanity existed. What has happened during two years of pandemic, as I call it, of "coronacircus"? What has it been used for? It was a transfer of wealth from the poorest to the richest populations, a transfer of billions of dollars. Since some people were able to survive and manage, especially those from the former middle class, they will try to transfer wealth through a 25% hyperinflation. At the same time, they will create a food shortage. This is why they brought Putin into the game, they made him play the role of the evil villain to go and attack Ukraine.

The challenge is global. Apart from what we have in front of us, other things are happening with the chaos created by the so-called "Fantastic Four". They are convinced, it is no longer a belief at this level but a conviction, that they are on a messianic mission and that their redemption will come through chaos.

They do not cease to create amazement absolutely everywhere in the world, and this has been going on for years. Look at what happened in Canada with the Truckers. Trudeau, who was also part of the gang, was exfiltrated and went into hiding. At the same time, it allowed him to declare a state of emergency. There was a big panic, people rushed to the banks to get cash. Trudeau had all the Truckers' accounts frozen. Within three days, there was no way to get money from an ATM, which can happen to us at any time in the West. I have been telling you for years I have been telling you for years to take money out of the banks, to keep cash with you, gold coins and silver coins. A year and a half ago I also told you to invest in alternative currencies, especially Anypsocoins.

Nobody talks about the conflict between Algeria and Morocco, which used to be friends, allied countries. Today, things are not going well between them. They have started to arm their military and put them on both sides of the border. Then, India sends a missile "accidentally" on Pakistan. The India - Pakistan - China conflict, with Kashmir. The return of Kim Jong Un who is having fun with his little missiles. He keeps testing intercontinental missiles. People like Kim Jong Un and Putin don't give a damn, they go looking for other means every time, other means of financing are even brought to them on a plate. Everything is truncated, organized, completely phony from the top. They put propaganda in front of your eyes, they manipulate you constantly.

They have two major ingredients that they use constantly: terror and stupor. This is what makes people's brains go crazy and causes them to stay put. They need you to be good little slaves, to keep their system going.

That's why they keep you in a matrix and you can't get out unless you know how. They are going to bring China into the dance with Taiwan, it has already started, a Chinese plane crashed a little bit off Taiwan. The real cause is that some people are playing with humanity, are convinced that the more chaos they create, the more they will be saved themselves, and they happily continue to create it everywhere. However, they know perfectly well the rules of the Universe, and have been applying them in the dark side for hundreds of years. There is a major cause of why they have accelerated their plans, why they are accelerating the chaos now.

There is a cosmological conjunction of cosmic phenomena that has been going on for some time. for some time. We have black hole alignments and collisions or mergers within our galaxy and in neighboring galaxies.

When there is a merger, when it meets another one, it becomes a supermassive black hole each time and will suck all the matter around it, which creates repercussions at the level of the whole universe. We often speak of a butterfly flapping its wings and it can reverberate to the other side of the Earth. In the universe, it is exactly the same. These disturbances reach our solar system. When scientists discovered that there were more and more collisions, black holes, and that this created disturbances, one smart scientist said, "This is obviously not expected based on our current understanding of cosmology. This is a bizarre discovery." They didn't expect that, because it's a new paradigm for them as well. There is a start of a new solar cycle at the same time.

We have several phenomena. There is a merging of black holes which become supermassive black holes and which will suck up the others which are next to them. We have what is called a collision.

When you throw pebbles into a pond, you take a pebble in each hand and you throw them into the pond, it will make concentric circles. What we call collision is the farthest circles that meet. This happened in our galaxy, with the collision with the Andromeda galaxy to another galaxy whose name is a mathematical name. All these disturbances also generate photonic tsunamis. And these famous tsunamis and hurricanes of solar storms generate photonic rains on the Earth, which then causes the Earth's vibratory rate to increase. You have two solutions: either you have the capacity to enter into a relationship with this excess of the Earth's vibratory rate, you have the capacity to connect to it, to follow the natural movement, or it is impossible for you, and we will see what they are putting in place for that. Since you are completely out of step with this increase in vibrational rate, it is the downward spiral.

What are the "Fantastic Four" setting up to make it impossible for you to rise in vibration? They know that if you can correlate and connect with this vibrational increase, you will be able to get out of this matrix, you will be able to slip through the cracks. This is what I teach all my students, with methods, strategies and tools to do so. They have no interest in doing so at all. Remember, they need slaves. Since you were born and gave your first cry, they have taken your power and put it under a bushel. They have no interest at all in some people being able to connect and raise their vibration so much that they would fall through the cracks. Since they are champions of setting up chaos, they take advantage of. Since they are champions of creating chaos, they take advantage of every increase in the earth's vibratory rate to accelerate their plan and create even more monumental chaos than before. They accelerate it, they set it up to be able to counter the effects of those who could be in correlation with the increase of the earth vibratory rate.

The destruction of Atlantis happened because of similar challenges. At the time of Atlantis, there were two factions. The first followed the Law of One, the Law of the Universe. They were permanently connected to the Universe with methods, the same methods that I teach my students, and they attracted permanent synchronicity into their lives. They used everything that was available to them in nature. And then some wanted to take over. As usual, the perniciousness of human nature causes the system to collapse. In this case, we are talking about the perniciousness of a few who have passed this on to most of humanity. At the time of Atlantis, we had on one side those who followed the law of

One, and the others who followed the law of Belial.

Now, this law of Belial was followed by people who advocated the same thing as we see now: selfishness, greed, avidity, they could not get enough. To play, they had invented what they called at the time the ray or the lightning, it was a superior technology that could look like a mix of nuclear bomb and laser beam, it allowed them to go and extract the resource that allowed them to use it for their personal interest.

One day, some leaders of the Law of One had the right intuition and perceived that the continent was going to collapse because of those of the Law of Belial. Those of the Law of Belial pushed the button a little too far, and the whole continent was swallowed up in the night. Those who had the intuition took the opportunity to save those who could be saved or those who deserved to be saved, and they spread out on the east and west coasts of what we now call the Atlantic. The same challenges that we are currently experiencing caused the destruction of Atlantis.

I received these interpretations not only from my third mentor, one of the last Knights Templar, but you can also verify them by reading the works of Edgar Cayce, an American channel, who recounts the history and life of Atlantis, which was later recounted by Herodotus and Plato. Moreover, the Knights Templar were put in correspondence with these teachings, because they found under the temples of Herod and Solomon in Jerusalem teachings that challenged all their formatting and conditioning, everything that completely challenged the whole theory of the Catholic Church. They realized that not only had the Catholic Church appropriated teachings and completely truncated or misused them to gain control over humanity, but they also had access to a wealth of teachings with practical work to implement that allowed them to have considerable power. They used it, which is why they were chased by the Catholic Church to steal their treasures. They discovered America. They knew very well that the Atlanteans were scattered along the coasts, especially in the East and in the West. They went to see what was happening in the West, almost 200 years before Christopher Columbus. From there they were able to import all their gold, they were able to implement all the teachings that they had found that allowed them to be practically alchemists.

My third mentor told me about the Atlantean heritage of the Order of the Temple, which is one of those secret societies that inherited the knowledge of the Atlanteans. The Atlantean heritage allowed the Order of the Temple an incredible rise until other initiates with a different agenda decided to put an end to it. There is a much stronger reason than the Templars' silver and gold that King Philip the Fair and Pope Clement V decided to arrest them all in 1307, a reason you will discover very soon.

Officially, the last of the Templars was Jacques De Molay, burned in Paris on March 11, 1314. At his execution, Jacques De Molay pronounced an anathema, a curse on his two executioners. He was a great initiate, he had immeasurable power. He had the power, simply by directing his hand, to kill someone instantly. Pope Clement V was burned to death on April 20, 1314, a few months after having Jacques De Molay burned, after a lightning bolt struck his church. King Philip the Fair died after a hunting trip on November 29, 1314. In the same year, both died. Jacques De Molay was the last Grand Master of the Templars. If his enemies were able to execute him, it was only because he accepted it. He was already 70 years old at the time, which was exceptional, a feat in the Middle Ages when the average age was barely 35. He was more than twice as old. Imagine if we transcribed that to our time when the life expectancy of a man must be 82 years, which you multiply by two, which makes the equivalent of 164 years. The life expectancy was between 25 and 30 years. The majority of kings who had access to the best care did not even reach the age of 50. He accepted this execution because he knew that the Templar teachings would continue after his death.

Some of the Templars left to avoid persecution. Many went west, and some went east. You can do your research on this, you will find traces of the Templars all over the world: in Turkey, in Iraq, among the Aztecs, among the Mayans and among the Incas. They started to merge with other societies to avoid detection. Some continued to claim their membership in the Order of the Temple, but secretly. This was the case with my third master who did not disclose it. There were a number who went west, and some went to Scotland with the aim of taking revenge on the Catholic Church that had persecuted them. They created a new order. These Templars were cathedral builders, they were in charge of implanting absolutely all the symbols they knew in the cathedrals. It is not for nothing that all the cathedrals in Europe of Europe have been in work at the present time. We believe that these works are embellishments, while the ultimate goal was to be able to remove and tear down all Templar symbols, which happened in all cathedrals.

The Templars who had set up the famous Companions of Duty to build cathedrals went to create another order, another secret society in Scotland. This secret society was inspired by the Companions of Duty and became what we call the Freemasons. In Scotland, they went to create this order, which was later completely misused and returned to the "dark side". To get back at the Catholic Church, which believed in God, they had to put forward the opposite. Now they are no longer hiding, it is beginning to be brought out into the open. They have lobotomized the population so much that they can afford not to hide anymore and they can afford to read the truth that will never be believed. They do not deprive themselves of this right now. This famous order of the Freemasons was created in 1316 by those who had escaped, and was then brought to light 400 years later for a very specific purpose: to 400 years later with a specific goal: to take revenge on the Catholic Church and their henchmen by pledging allegiance to the opposite of what they worshiped. It was a noble cause at first, as people continued to pass on original teachings. Now, we are coming up with teachings that are completely misused and serve the dark side instead of the bright side. This is what I learned from my third master, one of the last Templars. According to him, there were still two branches that had resisted persecution, but they did not know each other because everything had to remain secret.

The Templars therefore knew the forgotten history of Atlantis.

You are witnessing, as a spectator, a total and complete collapse of human society as it is. I wish you to witness this as a spectator, not as an actor. Unfortunately for the Ukrainians, they are not only actors, but also extras who are taking actors, but extras who take bombs on their heads. You are witnessing the collapse and destruction of a world that is now over. The last throes of the beast will last for a number of years. And then, after a while, all this will be rectified on new bases, but not before the decade 2070. In the meantime, you will have to hang on to the railings, and above all you will have to change your habits drastically, because you are in the midst of a major paradigm shift that you did not expect and that will cause enormous suffering. This requires you to do a lot of work on yourself, a daily training work like a high level athlete. This is what I do through my trainings, my teachings and with the tools, the strategies, the methods that allow you to do it, especially the fundamentals that are very important to work on.

We are creating a new world called the Anyvers.

You can get the entrance key to the Anyvers which is the Atlantean Crystal that you will be able to get in NFT. An NFT is an authenticated work of art with a mathematical code proving that it belongs to you, that you own it. Every time you pick up an Atlantean Crystal Card like this one, you are also receiving the same physical, printed card that will become a protection card. It is printed in a format that the printers do not master, that is why they take the time to do it. Everything should be done in this format, a format based on the golden ratio.

We're going to talk about three major keys to getting through this slump and chaos. The first is to work to get and stay at a high vibrational level all the time. You live your lives in two types of vibrations on a daily basis: either in vibrations of fear and lack, or in vibrations of love and abundance. You are constantly oscillating between these two vibrations in your lives. What I allow you to do with my training and programs is to live as often as possible in the higher vibrations, those of love and abundance. To recap, either you live in a vibration of fear and lack, below what I call the vibratory red line, which generates opacity, austerity, poverty, criticism and doubt. At the same time, you have to see that the Universe is a multiplier and an amplifier, the more you will vibrate with the vibrations of fear and lack, which they make you vibrate all the time through the mainstream media with all the terror and flabbergasting that they instill in you. These are their two favorite weapons to keep you permanently in these vibrations of fear and lack. From that point on, it creates immobility and they have complete and total control over you to make you do absolutely what they want. The solution is to work on the fundamentals that allow you to be permanently in the highest vibrations. The goal is to be permanently in the vibrations of love and abundance, in the highest vibrations. There is a basic work to be done for this, what I call the fundamentals.

When you are in high vibrations, since the Universe is an amplifier and a multiplier, this will allow you to live more and more often in high vibrations. I have made a diagram to show you a little bit how this works. When you are at a loss at the vibratory level, you are there. You want many things, you want to get out of this mess, but there is a mechanical impossibility for that. I locate the vibratory red line at the level of the heart center chakra, it is around 700 Hz. As soon as we fall below it, we are in descent. Everything that all the religious people of all stripes have taught you, the fact of getting on your knees and praying, can give absolutely nothing if you are at the bottom vibratory level. This is a mechanical impossibility, and I want to explain it with this diagram.

You want at the end of a month, you want love, you want money, you want health, you want a good life, but it's a mechanical impossibility because you're at a low point in terms of vibration, because you're living in fear, in stupor, in the downward spiral, in lack. You can stay on your knees 24/24 and pray, nothing will happen. However, from the moment you start working on yourself and working on the fundamentals that I make available to you, you will rise. Look at what is happening, there is a wall of vibrational sound. As long as you have not reached it, nothing can happen. The higher you go, the more everything you want will be able to pass through this kind of barrier and impact the Universe which will send this back to you. It is time that you are permanently connected, that you can live your lives in permanent connection to the Universe and to the high vibrations, and that you are connected to the source.

The known source of the Universe at this time is this famous Krasznahorkay particle. Professor Krasznahorkay discovered it in 2016 exactly. In his research, he is looking for smaller and smaller particles that deliver higher frequencies. So far, this is the one he discovered. He did the experiment again in 2020 and it gave exactly the same results. He uses particle cannons, particle gas pedals. It is important to know that this particle is intelligent. His intention was to find a particle that moves from point A to point B at the highest speed. This one detected his attention, it did something very particular. It took a very particular curvature to be able to accelerate and do even more than what he asked it to do. This particle is the known source at the moment, because it is absolutely everywhere, it is in the depths of black holes, it is everywhere around you, it is in the air and in the earth, it is even inside you when you have the capacity to visualize it. It goes further than the Higgs Boson in 2012. It is the X17 Protophobe Boson. Compared to the Higgs Boson, the particularities of the particle of Krasznahorkay particle is that it vibrates at the highest frequency, 4111 THz, and it moves at the highest speed, at 64 times the speed of light.

When you have the ability to consciously connect to this known source of the universe, what some people would not call God; I never use that word anymore, it has been so abused by all the religious people to enslave us that I don't want to use it anymore, which is a pity, because it is one of the words that vibrates at the highest frequency in all the languages; when you connect to it, consciously and on a daily basis, your life will never be the same again. When you do this famous daily practice that allows you to raise your vibration, it allows you to attract synchronicities. A synchronicity is when you think you need something and it immediately manifests in your life. Most of my students have mastered this aspect and have become true experts in attracting synchronicity.

To do this, there are the fundamentals to follow. What they have been doing for the last two years with this "coronacircus" and with these massive chemical injections have made them billions, only the naive can believe that it was for their own good. They don't care about humanity, it means nothing to them. Look, we are dropping bombs on the Ukrainian population, on many other populations around the world, and they don't care. To them, we are just insects that they can crush with their feet, but that will serve them, slaves that they will be able to control as they please. They have weakened your immune system on purpose. By weakening the immune system, they kill two birds with one stone. They know that, mechanically, it will be impossible to increase your vibrations because they can no longer function optimally inside the body. That is the first thing. At the same time, by weakening your immune system, they can eliminate you as they wish.

That's exactly what's going to happen. what is going to happen. The injected, as I call them, have only ten years of maximum life expectancy left. A lot of them have already fallen, and I can guarantee you that this will continue.

Paradigm shift means a drastic change of habits for you, with things that are to be eliminated. Everything they make you ingest all day long is not for your good. Everything that the food industry makes you ingest all day long is made to weaken our immune system. This requires going back to basics, especially getting rid of gluten. You stop all white flour because gluten is like school glue, the white glue that smelled good, that smelled like almonds. It will stick to the walls of the intestines. The intestine can no longer fulfill its role, which is to extract nutrients from food in order to diffuse them in the body. Then, the second effect of gluten is that it sticks to the glial cells in the brain, cells that are very important for everything that has to do with for all the inter-neuronal traffic, all that we call synaptic connections. This will prevent the proper functioning of these synaptic connections. It is not for nothing that you will have to deal with more and more crazy people around you, people with degraded mental health who are unable to think normally.

The power of anticipation: there are two basic states when faced with a situation: either you are in reaction or you are in anticipation. To be in anticipation, you need to have the right intuition. The only way to have the right intuition is to increase your vibrations. I told you about two of my students who were in Ukraine. Everyone knew that war was coming. They have been talking about it for a long time. Some people have terror and stupor in this kind of case. They will prefer to live in denial, they are directly in reaction.

When the war really comes, they are in reaction. Some have fled in panic, leaving absolutely everything behind. behind them. Others died under the bombs. Others are still stuck in the cities, like Marioupol, or are going to starve because it is surrounded and there is nothing more that can happen, there is no more food. People are killing each other in the remaining stores to buy food. They are surrounded, they are holed up in their cellars without food, without water, without electricity, without gas. All those who were in denial had the possibility to leave, especially as they were very close to the conflict zones.

Marioupol is close to the Donbass, which has been at war for eight years. They could not say that we had not warned them. However, they were in denial, they stayed. Their fate is no longer in their hands, that is obvious.

Others anticipated. Those who had the intuition saw the signs and left. They had time to settle somewhere else and take their families with them, without any trauma, with only regrets for having to leave. I told you about Sergei, he anticipated, he had intuition. He waited until almost the last moment. He had an intuition, on the 23rd he left for Poland, he didn't even ask himself any questions. As I advocate. He had already started to prepare things so that he could leave for any distance within five minutes, that's exactly what he did. He took his wife, his son and some luggage and left. Now he is doing very well, he is in Poland. In Poland he has more and more clients, and he starts a new life in the best conditions.

And then the third key is the power of the network, which is what the "Fantastic Four" use. They have set up networks, a whole bunch of secret societies with whom they play a game with different rules than the one they make you play in real life. You don't know these rules of the game, you can never know them, they don't want you to come and play in their backyard. Why do all the powerful people of this world meet in Davos, the World Economic Forum? There is strength in numbers. At the same time, they are conditioning and formatting the next leaders who will be ordered to continue implementing their system. Look at the little "Micron" you have at home, 2017 session from Papa Schwab's. He is the little suck-up, not only does he follow the orders of the He not only follows the orders of the "Fantastic Four" to the letter, but he anticipates them as well. You need to have a place to meet, you need to be able to exchange ideas and anticipate the future, you need to be able to share the same values with people who are of the same vibration as you.

How are we going to overcome the coming cataclysm?

First thing: raise your vibratory level. You can do this thanks to all the teachings I have been giving you for more than six years now. Second thing: anticipate the future. You've seen what's happened in the last two years. The place where people have "picked up" the most at all levels is Europe, the West, and that will continue. And then join a network.

You can't take a private jet. Maybe some people can do it to go to the most luxurious hotels in Switzerland and join Davos. You'll never get back anyway, because you're not part of the gang. So we'll do it another way. That's why I'm developing the Anyvers, a new world that we are creating together. We are going to combine everything in Anyvers: spiritual path, work, play and finance for a parallel society. This will allow us to create a new world that will allow you to slip through the cracks.

If I have to summarize the Anyvers, it's the system on which we are going to organize a parallel society where you will continue your spiritual development through metamorphosis training and initiation training in the form of gambling as well, and then you will be able to access what you have learned about yourself simply to make the best decisions. We do all this together, being helped at the same time by the by the community. You will be able to work and earn money using your talents. If you have lessons to share, you can pass them on to Anyvers. If you are an inspired artist, you produce paintings, sculptures, photographs, music, you will be able to exhibit your art and sell it directly in the Anyvers as NFT. If you are a web developer, you will be able to add applications directly in the Anyvers. If you are an anypsologist or therapist, you will be able to do your consultations directly in Anyvers.

Here are some of the alternative therapies you can find in Anyvers (non-exhaustive list):

- Ayurveda - Apitherapy - Bach Flower Therapy - Naturopathic Medicine - Traditional Chinese Medicine - Traditional Korean Medicine - Traditional Japanese Medicine - Traditional Mongolian Medicine - Traditional Tibetan Medicine - Zang Fu Theory - The Healing the Mind - Autosuggestion - Hypnotherapy - Neurolinguistic Programming - Self-Hypnosis - Spiritual Mind Treatment - Transcendental Meditation - Healing the Body - Acupressure - Acupuncture - Alexander Technique - Auriculotherapy - Autogenic Training - Chiropractic - Cupping therapy - Kinesiology - Osteomyology - Osteopathy - Pilates - Qi Gong - Reflexology - Yoga - External energy - Magnetic therapy - Biomagnetic therapy - Magnetic and etheric resonance therapy - Radionics - Reiki - Therapeutic touch - Chakra healing -

Sensory healing - Aromatherapy -
Music therapy - Sonopuncture - Sound therapy...

And many more.

If you are good at marketing, you will be able to help creators sell their work and develop the Anyvers or promote the Anyvers. The writings, the poems, everything that is art in its entirety. You will be able to grow your assets by lending them directly into the Anyvers, by receiving a loan into the Anyvers to develop your projects. You will be able to do activities that take you to the highest vibrations and that you enjoy, activities that are completely fun. There can be electromagnetic car races, karaoke, games that depend on the imagination of the users. You will be able to get to know other users, a kind of forum. You will be able to meet new friends who share the same aspirations or who are in the same vibrations as you. You will be able to practice raising your vibration.

The Anyvers also has a particularity. Unlike Zuckerberg, I don't think I'm God, I'm far from it, I know I'm not omniscient, I won't control the Anyvers. It is also a paradigm shift. Zuckerberg's metaverse is centralized, it belongs to Meta, whose owner is Zuckerberg. In the Anyvers, it's completely the opposite, there is no CEO, it's not me who makes the decisions. In the Anyvers, there is no president who is going to be a monarch. Once the basic structure of the Anyvers is in place (it's in the process of being set up, I've been working on it for several months), we're going to put online a voting system in the blockchain that will allow each member of the Anyvers to bring his or her voice and to become a co-creator of the Anyvers. It will be accessible from any device: a computer, a tablet or a smartphone. The Anyvers is going to be in 2D at the beginning, it's going to be a mix of game and application. It starts with the ocean, it's a kind of new world.

We're going to enter the Anyvers, starting from the ocean. You're going to be able to create your avatar and customize it exactly the way you want. The idea is to have as much freedom as possible in creating your avatar so that you can really express your identity. It has to be something that looks like you, not something that is light years away from who you are. If you like to draw, you can create clothes inside the Anyvers. You will be able to follow initiatory teachings within the Anyvers. You will be able to walk in the vestiges of Atlantis and discover certain elements that will allow you to raise your vibration. You will be able to check your AnypsoCoin balance (the Anyvers token), send payments, lend or receive from whoever you want within the Anyvers where you will be able to exchange between you. You will be able to meet, exchange, do favors directly inside the Anyvers. If you are a coach, you will be able to sell your trainings. You will be able to exhibit your work and sell it to collectors in the Anyvers through the NFT.

That's what Anyvers is, a mission I've given myself for 2022-2023-2024. These are the years when it's going to be the most disruptive, the years when they're going to create monumental chaos so they can completely enslave the rest of humanity. Those who can make it through will do so in these three years. The development has already been underway for several months. It is not an easy mission, it will take time, I will time, I will encounter multiple challenges. However, it is well worth the effort. Each NFT allows you to own a piece of the Anyvers and it allows us to develop it all together at the same time. The Anyvers is the universe that will allow us to organize from anywhere in the world, to live, to contribute and to defeat inflation, because we are building an alternative system through the AnypsoCoin.

Remember the Will Smith movie "I am Legend" where there was so much chaos created that Will Smith is one of the survivors. He lives on the surface, all the others live underground, they are some kind of zombie. There's a reason why the Hollywood industry has put us in the presence of a whole bunch of science fiction movies. This had only one purpose: to get your neurons used to what was going to happen. There are several movies like that: Elysium, Ready Player One, I am a Legend etc. The hero of this movie is Will Smith, he has a morning routine, he tries to stay in the best shape possible so he can live on the surface and live free. Underneath, there are all the zombie species that are hyper jealous of Will Smith and want to catch him to make him come back to them, they even want to eliminate him. To protect himself, Will Smith builds himself a reinforced glass wall. At the end of the movie, we see all these famous zombies who are attacking, throwing themselves on this glass partition to be able to rip it open and catch Will Smith. We are exactly here. All the resistance fighters are in this case, we are all Will Smith with all the others around who are out to get us.

There is a major object in Atlantis that was used by those who were in the Law of One, it is the Atlantean crystal. It was the source of their power, an extraterrestrial rock that vibrated at an immense frequency. For those who were in the Law of One, they always had this famous Atlantean crystal with them, it allowed them to be in the highest vibrations and to have a protection. It was the key of their power and their prosperity, but also to the downfall of those who neglected it. Those who neglected it and did not use it, and who, after a while, switched to the law of Belial, hastened their certain death. I have decided to recreate within the Anyvers exactly this Atlantean crystal, it is the key that will allow you to unlock the recording of my seminar

"The Forgotten History of Atlantis", a 5-hour seminar with all the Atlantean teachings. Anyone who has this NFT in their wallet will possess the key to the Atlantean teachings. There is a new paradigm shift as well. Like any NFT, it is going to be yours and it belongs to you with a specific mathematical code that proves it is your property. It belongs to you and no one else, and no one else can take it from you. This is the first step of the major technological evolution that we are integrating in Anyvers. It becomes educational property. It's not just this NFT that you get, but you get ownership of an education. I have made a transfer of ownership of my teachings. I didn't do like the other fantastic four, the transfer of wealth from the poorest to the richest, I do the complete opposite. I am transferring the ownership of my teachings, which belonged to me until now, to you who are the owner of the Atlantean crystal. I am the first in the field and, in my opinion, I will be the only one to do so. When you bought one of my online trainings before, you received the training with a password and a login by email, you could log on and watch it. Now I take it a step further. With the Atlantean Crystal, you own my online seminar, you own the copy of this online seminar, I have made a transfer of ownership. You will be able to give this key, to resell it, and there will be a transfer of ownership to the new owner. The new owner becomes the owner of the Atlantean teachings. In turn, he will be able to do the same thing, resell it, and allow new people to discover the Atlantean secrets. The Atlantean crystal is the very first version of a technological evolution and a major paradigm shift that will be progressively adopted throughout the Anyvers.
